"ShyGirl"

Hi, my name is "ShyGirl" and I've been very sad since my human passed away and left me behind. Sugarland Ranch Staff and Volunteers have done their best to make me feel loved and wanted and they have the best doggy meals in town. I'm an adult female, current on all my shots. I'm very quiet and would absolutely love finding another adult, senior human companion to live with. I want to be by a fireplace, take leisurely walks. I think I might get along with other older animals as long as they didn't overwhelm me and were also on the quiet side, but mostly I just want that 1:1 human companionship with possibly an older individual who just wants my company.

I think that I'm likely a Shepherd/Husky X with beautiful, silky long hair that needs to be brushed
